1. The share capital of the Company is PLN 70,972,001.00 (seventy million nine hundred and seventy-two thousand and one zlotys) and is divided into 70,972,001 (seventy million nine hundred and seventy-two thousand and one) ordinary bearer shares of a nominal value of PLN 1 (one zloty) each, of which 7,430,000 (seven million four hundred and thirty thousand) are series A shares, 3,570,000 (three million five hundred and seventy thousand) are series B shares, 33,000,000 (thirty-three million) are series C shares, 4,390,000 (four million three hundred and ninety thousand) are series D shares, and 22,582,001 (twenty-two million five hundred and eighty-two thousand and one) are series E ordinary bearer shares.
2. (deleted)

1. Shares may be redeemed in compliance with the provisions of the Commercial Companies Code on share capital reductions.
2. A redemption of shares may take place with the consent of the shareholder whose shares are to be redeemed. The conditions and method of redemption shall be determined each time by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
3. Subject to the exceptions provided for in the Commercial Companies Code, the Company cannot on its own account acquire or accept its own shares as a pledge.

IV CORPORATE BODIES OF THE COMPANY

The corporate bodies of the Company are:

1. The Management Board of the Company
2. The Supervisory Board
3. The General Meeting of Shareholders

A. THE MANAGEMENT BOARD OF THE COMPANY

1. The Management Board of the Company consists of one or more members, including the President and Vice President of the Management Board. Members of the Management Board are appointed for a joint term of office. A term of office of the Management Board lasts five years, and the re-appointment of a person as member of the Management Board cannot take place earlier than one year before the lapse of that Management Board member's current term of office.
2. The first Management Board was appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
3. The President of the Management Board, a member of the Management Board or the entire Management Board may be recalled at any time before the end of a term of office by the Supervisory Board or the General Meeting of Shareholders.

1. The Management Board of the Company, under the leadership of the President of the Management Board, manages the Company and represents it externally. Resolutions of the Management Board are adopted by an absolute majority of votes, and in the case of an equal number of votes the casting vote is held by the President of the Management Board.
2. The competence of the Management Board extends to all matters in connection with running the Company which are not reserved by law or this Statute for the competence of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Supervisory Board. For the disposal or acquisition in whole or in part of the real property of the Company, or for the encumbrance in whole or in part of real property belonging to the Company limited in rem, a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders is not required. A decision on the disposal or acquisition in whole or in part of the real property of the Company, or on the encumbrance in whole or in part of real property belonging to the Company limited in rem with a value equal to or exceeding PLN 1,500,000 (one million five hundred thousand zlotys), shall be taken by the Management Board in the form of a resolution after having obtained the consent of the Supervisory Board. If, however, the encumbrance in whole or in part of real property belonging to the Company limited in rem is made in favour of financial institutions, the decision relating thereto shall be at the sole discretion of the Management Board.
3. The Regulations of the Management Board specify the operating procedures of the Management Board. The Regulations are adopted by the Management Board and approved by the Supervisory Board.

1. Declarations of will pertaining to the property rights and obligations of the Company and to signing documents on behalf of the Company can be made, in the case of a one-person Management Board by the President of the Management Board acting individually, and in the case of a multi-person Management Board in the following way:
 - 1) by the President of the Management Board acting jointly with another Management Board member.
 - 2) by two members of the Management Board acting jointly,
 - 3) by the President or a member of the Management Board acting jointly with a Registered Holder of a Commercial Power of Attorney.
2. The consent of all members of the Management Board is required to establish a commercial power of attorney.
3. A commercial power of attorney may be recalled by any member of the Management Board.

§ 12

Employment agreements with Members of the Management Board of the Company are concluded on behalf of the Company by a representative of the Supervisory Board delegated from among its Members. This same procedure applies to other acts in connection with the employment relationship of a Member of the Management Board.

B. THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

1. The Supervisory Board consists of from five to seven members. Members of the Supervisory Board are appointed for a joint term of office. A term of office of the Supervisory Board lasts five years, and the renewed appointment of a person as member of the Supervisory Board cannot take place earlier than one year before the lapse of that Supervisory Board member's current term of office.
2. Members of the Supervisory Board are appointed and recalled by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
3. At least half of the members of the Supervisory Board should be independent members, free of any connections with the Company and its shareholders or employees which could have a material impact on their ability to make impartial decisions.
4. Independent members of the Supervisory Board as well as persons personally connected with them (in particular, spouses, descendants and ascendants) should meet the following criteria:

- they are not and have not been an employee of the Company, its subsidiaries or dominant entities in the past five years,
 - they are not and have not been employed in the Company, its subsidiaries or dominant entities as a member of the management board or in another managerial position in the past five years,
 - they do not receive any additional remuneration (beyond what is due to them from their membership on the supervisory board) or any material benefits whatsoever from the Company, its subsidiaries or dominant entities,
 - they are not a shareholder directly or indirectly holding shares exceeding 10 per cent of the total number of votes at the general meeting of shareholders, nor are they a representative, member of the management board or supervisory board or an employee in a managerial position of such a shareholder,
 - they are not and have not been an auditor of the Company or its subsidiaries or dominant entities, nor are they or have they been an employee of an entity providing auditing services for the Company, its subsidiaries or dominant entities in the past three years,
 - they do not have and have not had family connections with any member of the Management Board of the Company, or with any employee of the Company in a managerial position or acting as legal advisor or dominant shareholder in the past three years,
 - they do not have and have not had any significant economic connections with the Company, either directly or indirectly, as a partner, significant shareholder, member of a corporate body or manager in the past year,
 - they have not been a member of the Supervisory Board of the Company for more than 12 years counting from the date of their first appointment,
 - they are not a member of the management board of another company in which a member of the management board of that company is a member of the supervisory board of another company.
5. The resignation or death of a member of the Supervisory Board, or another event causing the number of members of the Supervisory Board to diminish, does not result in the invalidity of resolutions adopted by the Supervisory Board provided that the number of members of the Supervisory Board is not less than five.

1. The Supervisory Board elects a Chairman of the Supervisory Board from among its membership, as well as a Vice Chairman and, if necessity dictates, a Secretary.
2. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board convenes meetings of the Supervisory Board and conducts them. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board of a previous term of office convenes and opens the first meeting of a newly elected Supervisory Board, and conducts the meeting until the moment that a new Chairman is elected.
3. The Supervisory Board can recall the Chairman, Vice Chairman and the Secretary.

1. The Supervisory Board shall hold a meeting at least once per quarter.
2. Meetings of the Supervisory Board are convened by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, on his or her own initiative or at the written request of a member of the Management Board or member of the Supervisory Board. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board is obliged to convene a meeting of the Supervisory Board within two weeks of receiving a motion from the Management Board or a member of the Supervisory Board in which an agenda is proposed, such meeting to be held not later than three weeks from the date the motion is received. If, despite having received a proper motion, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board does not convene a meeting of the Supervisory Board within the required time period, the person who submitted the motion can themselves convene the meeting, providing its date, location and the proposed agenda.

1. In order for a resolution of the Supervisory Board to be valid, all members of the Supervisory Board must be invited to the meeting at which it is adopted. Members of the Supervisory Board can take part in adopting resolutions of the Supervisory Board by voting in writing through another Supervisory Board member, with the proviso that voting in writing may not be used in matters placed on the agenda during a meeting of the Supervisory Board, or in electing the Chairman or Vice Chairman of the Supervisory Board, appointing a member of the Management Board, or recalling or suspending the Chairman or Vice Chairman of the Supervisory Board or a member of the Management Board.

2. The Supervisory Board adopts resolutions by an absolute majority of votes with the presence of at least half the members of the Supervisory Board, and in the case of an equal number of votes the casting vote is held by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board. The Supervisory Board can adopt resolutions in writing or by the remote use of means of direct communication, with the exception of resolutions concerning the election of the Chairman or Vice Chairman of the Supervisory Board, the appointment of a member of the Management Board, or the recall or suspension of the Chairman or Vice Chairman of the Supervisory Board or a member of the Management Board. A resolution adopted in writing or by the remote use of means of direct communication is valid only if all members of the Supervisory Board have been informed of the content of the resolution.
3. The Supervisory Board adopts its regulations, which specify in detail the procedures under which it functions.

1. The Supervisory Board supervises all areas of the activities of the Company.
2. Apart from other matters set out in this Statute, the competence of the Supervisory Board extends to:
 - 1) assessing the Management Board's report on the operations of the Company and the financial statements for the previous financial year in terms of their compliance with the books of account and documents and the factual status, as well as preparing a concise evaluation of the situation of the Company in accordance with the Rules of Corporate Governance,
 - 2) assessing motions by the Management Board on the division of profits or covering of losses,
 - 3) submitting a written report on the results of the activities in pt. 1 and 2 to the General Meeting of Shareholders,
 - 4) assessing the consolidated Management Report on the operations of the capital group and the consolidated financial statements for the previous financial year in terms of their compliance with the books of account and documents and the factual status, and submitting a written report on the results of those activities to the General Meeting of Shareholders,
 - 5) appointing an auditor to conduct an audit of the financial statements,
 - 6) defining the scope and time periods for the Management Board to submit annual material and financial plans and long-term strategic plans,
 - 7) providing an opinion on the long-term strategic plans of the Company,
 - 8) approving and assessing annual material and financial plans,
 - 9) approving the uniform text of the Statute of the Company, prepared by the Management Board of the Company,
 - 10) approving the regulations of the Management Board of the Company,
 - 11) approving the organisational regulations of the Company's business,
 - 12) providing an opinion on all matters submitted by the Management Board for consideration by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
3. The competence of the Supervisory Board includes granting consent to the Management Board for:
 - 1) the acquisition or disposal of fixed assets, including real property or rights of perpetual usufruct, or ownership interests in real property or rights of perpetual usufruct whose value is equal to or exceeds PLN 1,500,000 (one million five hundred thousand zlotys),
 - 2) the Company granting guarantees, suretyships or promissory notes in connection with Company operations, where their total value at the end of the previous month exceeds the equivalent of 30 per cent of the value of sales for the previous year (except for promissory notes to secure credit agreements and guarantee limits),
 - 3) concluding a credit or loan agreement where its one-time value exceeds the equivalent of 10 per cent of the value of the Company's share capital,
 - 4) incurring liabilities resulting from contracts, where the value of a given contract exceeds the equivalent of 15 per cent of the value of sales achieved by the Company in the previous year,
 - 5) the disposal of shares or ownership interests in companies belonging to the Capital Group, except for those acquired in organised trading on a regulated market,

- 6) the acquisition of securities issued by entities whose registered office is not in Poland,
- 7) the payment to shareholders of an advance towards an anticipated dividend.
4. Moreover, the competence of the Supervisory Board extends to include, in particular:
 - 1) appointing and recalling members of the Management Board,
 - 2) determining the rules of remuneration and the amounts of remuneration for members of the Management Board,
 - 3) suspending members of the Management Board for serious reasons,
 - 4) delegating members of the Supervisory Board to temporarily substitute for members of the Management Board who cannot perform their duties because they have been suspended or recalled,
 - 5) granting consent to the creation or closure of branches of the Company outside of Poland,
 - 6) granting consent to members of the Management Board to hold positions in the corporate bodies of other companies not belonging to the Capital Group of the Company.

§ 17a

1. Taking up or purchasing shares or ownership interests in other companies requires the consent of the Supervisory Board in the following cases:
 - a) in exchange for claims of the Company as part of mediation, bankruptcy or corporate recovery proceedings,
 - b) when the value of the shares or ownership interest acquired in a single company, in the case of public and non-public companies, exceeds PLN 1,500,000 (one million five hundred thousand zlotys).
2. Disposing of shares or ownership interests in other companies requires the consent of the Supervisory Board, with specification of the conditions and procedure for the disposal, except for:
 - a) a disposal of shares which are in organised trading on a regulated market,
 - b) a disposal of shares or an ownership interest which the Company holds in an amount not exceeding 10 per cent of the share capital of a particular company.
3. The consent of the Supervisory Board is also required for the acquisition of participation units in investment funds managed by an Investment Fund Company (Polish: Towarzystwo Funduszy Inwestycyjnych) as well as for entrusting funds to the management of a licensed entity providing securities portfolio management services, if the amount of the investment or funds entrusted exceeds the equivalent of EUR 250,000 (two hundred and fifty thousand euros) in zlotys.
4. The competence of the Supervisory Board also extends to providing opinions on resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company, or the General Meeting of Shareholders of companies in which the Company holds at least 50 per cent of the shares or ownership interest, in the following matters:
 - a) amendments to the statute or articles of association of a company or the subject of a company's business activity,
 - b) mergers, transformations, divisions, winding up or liquidation of a company,
 - c) increases or reductions in the share capital of a company,
 - d) disposal or lease of a company's business or an organised part thereof and establishing a limited right in rem thereon,
 - e) issuing bonds of any type,
 - f) determining the method and conditions for share redemptions,
 - g) making decisions concerning claims for the remedy of damage caused in incorporating a company or in carrying out management or supervision.

§ 18

1. The Supervisory Board performs its duties collectively, although it may delegate its members to carry out particular supervisory actions individually.
2. The remuneration of members of the Supervisory Board is set by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
3. The remuneration of members of the Supervisory Board delegated to temporarily perform the duties of a member of the Management Board is set by the Supervisory Board.
4. Members of the Supervisory Board are obliged to keep confidential all information and documents concerning the Company which come into their possession in the course of performing their duties on the Supervisory Board.

C. THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders meets as an ordinary or extraordinary meeting.
2. The Management Board convenes an Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, which should be held within six months after the lapse of each financial year.
3. The Management Board convenes an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders:
 - 1) on its own initiative,
 - 2) at the written request of the Supervisory Board,
 - 3) at the request of shareholders holding at least 1/10 of the share capital.
4. An Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders should be convened at the request of the Supervisory Board or shareholders holding at least 1/10 of the share capital within two weeks of the date of announcing the request, for a day not later than within sixty days from the date of announcing the request.
5. The Supervisory Board convenes a General Meeting of Shareholders:
 - 1) if the Management Board of the Company does not convene an Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders within the time period prescribed,
 - 2) if, despite submitting the request referred to in par. 3 pt. 2, the Management Board of the Company does not convene a General Meeting of Shareholders within the time period referred to in par. 4.

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders can only adopt resolutions on items on the agenda.
2. The Supervisory Board and shareholders holding at least 1/10 of the share capital can request that specific items be placed on the agenda of the next General Meeting of Shareholders. Such a request must be submitted in writing to the Management Board one month before the proposed date of the General Meeting of Shareholders at the latest.
3. If this request is submitted after the announcement on convening the General Meeting of Shareholders, it will be regarded as a request to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.
4. A resolution on not considering a resolution placed on the agenda can only be adopted if there are important and substantial reasons for this. In such a case, the request should be justified in detail. Removing an item which had been placed on the agenda at the request of the shareholders, or not considering it, requires the adoption of a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, after consent given in advance by all shareholders present who submitted that request, supported by 75 per cent of the votes of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

General Meetings of Shareholders shall be held in Katowice.

§ 22

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders can adopt resolutions irrespective of the number of shareholders present and shares represented.
2. Unless otherwise stated in this Statute or in law, each share gives entitlement to one vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

1. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be adopted by a simple majority of votes cast, unless the law or this Statute states otherwise.
2. In the case provided for in Article 397 of the Commercial Companies Code, a majority of three quarters of the votes cast is required for the adoption of a resolution on dissolving the Company.

§ 24

1. Voting shall be open. A secret ballot shall be held for elections and motions to recall members of the Company's corporate bodies or liquidators, or to hold them liable, as well as in personnel matters.
A secret ballot shall also be held even if only one of those present who are entitled to vote requests this.
2. Resolutions on changing the subject of activity of the Company shall always be adopted in open voting by roll call.

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be opened by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board or a person indicated by him or her, after which the Chairman shall be elected from among those persons entitled to vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders.
2. The General Meeting of Shareholders adopts its regulations specifying in detail the procedure for conducting meetings.

1. The competence of the General Meeting of Shareholders extends to:
 - 1) considering and approving the Management Board's report on the operations of the Company and the financial statements of the Company for the previous financial year,
 - 2) considering and approving the Management Board's report on the operations of the Energomontaż-Południe S.A. Capital Group and the consolidated financial statements for the previous financial year,
 - 3) adopting a resolution on the division of profits or covering of losses,
 - 4) discharging members of the Company's governing bodies from liability in the performance of their duties,
 - 5) changing the subject of activity of the Company,
 - 6) amending the Statute of the Company,
 - 7) increasing or decreasing the share capital,
 - 8) merging, dividing and transforming the Company,
 - 9) dissolving and liquidating the Company,
 - 10) issuing bonds,
 - 11) disposing of or leasing the Company's business or an organised part thereof and establishing a limited right in rem thereon,
 - 12) taking all decisions concerning claims for the remedy of damage caused in incorporating the Company or in carrying out management or supervision.
2. Apart from the matters referred to in par. 1, matters specified in the Commercial Companies Code also require a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Subject to appropriate provisions of law, a change in the Company's subject of activity can be made without the obligation to buy up shares.

V INTERNAL MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY

The organisation of the Company's business shall be determined by the Organisational Regulations established by the Management Board of the Company and approved by the Supervisory Board.

§ 29

1. The Company shall keep reliable accounts in accordance with applicable provisions of law.

2. The calendar year shall be the financial year of the Company.

§ 30

1. The Company creates the following capital:
 - 1) share capital,
 - 2) supplementary capital,
 - 3) capital and funds, the obligation to create which results from applicable provisions of law.
2. The Company can create other capital and funds on the basis of a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The General Meeting of Shareholders specifies the principles of using such capital or funds.

§ 31

The Management Board of the Company is obliged, within five months after the lapse of the financial year, to prepare and submit to the Supervisory Board the financial statements as at the last day of the year, as well as a written report on the Company's operations during that time.

§ 32

1. The Company's profit can be intended in particular for:
 - 1) supplementary capital,
 - 2) shoring up reserve capital created in the Company,
 - 3) a dividend for the shareholders,
 - 4) other purposes specified by a resolution adopted by the appropriate corporate body of the Company.
2. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall determine the day of the dividend and the date for paying the dividend by adopting a resolution.
