INA announced – Arbitral Tribunal resolution rejected compensation claims against INA in the legal dispute between INA and EDISON INTERNATIONAL

MOL Hungarian Oil and Gas Public Limited Company (“MOL”) hereby informs the capital market participants that INA, d.d. made the following Stock Exchange announcement today:

In the arbitration procedure initiated by EDISON INTERNATIONAL S.p.A against INA, d.d., concerning the Production Sharing Agreement in the Contract Area of the Republic of Croatia Offshore Adriatic Sea Izabela and Iris/Iva blocks, the Arbitral Tribunal resolved that compensation claims against INA have been rejected. The parties are obliged to bear the legal and other costs relating to this proceedings. In partnership projects INA continues with the open approach to negotiations, focusing on finding mutually acceptable settlement for resolving differences in understandings, including this case, where INA’s aim – as a normal interest – is to activate and start production from the assets in the foreseeable future.
