

Publication of Interim Financial Statements

6 January 2016

Report No 1/2016

Effective as of 4 December 2015 certain amendments of the Law on Securities of the Republic of Lithuania came into force. According to the respective amendments, the Issuer of securities is no longer obliged to prepare and publish its interim financial statements for 3, 9 and 12 months, unless the respective Issuer determines otherwise.

Using the right to decide whether to prepare and publish the Company's interim financial statements, the Management Board of AviaAM Leasing AB (the Company) decided that the Company shall continue preparing and publishing its interim financial statements for 3, 9 and 12 months in accordance with the previously settled procedures.
