

NOTIFICATION IN ORDER TO ATTEND THE MEETING

The legitimate attendance of shareholders' meetings and the exercise of voting rights is confirmed by a statement to the issuer from the intermediary, in compliance with intermediary accounting records, on behalf of the person with the right to vote. The statement shall be issued by the intermediary on the basis of balances recorded at the end of the seventh trading day prior to the date of the shareholders' meeting on first or single call. Credit and debit records entered on accounts after this deadline shall not be considered for the purpose of legitimising the exercise of voting rights at the shareholders' meeting.

Polish investors<sup>1</sup> are kindly required to apply to their local Broker/Depository Bank which maintains their securities accounts in order to be enabled to attend the UniCredit Meeting.

To this end Brokers/Depository Banks will require to a Monte Titoli<sup>2</sup> participant the issue of the notification, providing such Monte Titoli participant with information on the number of UniCredit's Shares registered on a given shareholder's securities account and other details related to such shareholder. The notification, in accordance with article 13 of UniCredit's Articles of Association will be directly sent by Monte Titoli participant to UniCredit in order to allow the shareholder to join the Meeting. A copy of such notification may be delivered by the Broker/Depository Bank to the shareholder who is kindly request to present it at the Meetings' reception desk along with his/her identification document or, if applicable, the excerpt from relevant commercial register concerning the entity he/she represents in accordance with rules of representation described in that excerpt (if such a document contains information presented in Polish language only, it has to be provided along with its sworn translation into Italian or English language).

It has to be pointed out the notification has to be received by UniCredit no later than the third day of open trading prior to the date set for the first call of the Meeting. In order to ensure the completion of the procedure within the prescribed timeframe, the shareholders are kindly advised to contact their Brokers/Depository Banks duly in advance of the date of the given Meeting.

Shares registered under the name of two or more shareholders: shares are indivisible. In the event of joint ownership, the rights of the co-owners shall be exercised by a common representative specified on the notification.
